Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

IN RE:

SPECIAL CONDITION OF
PROBATION AND SUPERVISED
RELEASE: THE SPECIAL SEARCH
AND SEIZURE CONDITION

G.O. 99-14 ✓

ORDER

IT IS THE ORDER of the Court that the following special condition entitled "Special Search and Seizure Condition" shall apply to all persons placed on probation or supervised release when deemed reasonable and specifically ordered by the Court based on the defendant's history and recognized rehabilitative concern or need to protect community. The Special Search and Seizure Condition shall read as follows:

The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U.S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 13th day of July, 1999.
